Dear Mr. Dellinger,

As one of the few editors who has dared print on this subject, some of the material in my book WHITEWASH may be familiar to you. I believe you will find it more complete than anything else and with somewhat of a different orientation.

The Preface explains its appearance in this form. I had no choice, for we are without funds and in debt, and the labor on this has been great. Save for a few small additions, the book was finished more than 14 months ago. We are printing this on credit! Having no staff, I'm writing the letters in advance. We have not as yet arranged distribution, have no budgets for advertising or public relations, but we are trying. I hope that a modest success in this form may overcome the fears of the publishers and lead to regular publication.

You will notice I focus on the Report and the staff (including the FBI) rather than the Commission and its chairman. This is not only because I have a high regard for what Earl Warren has done on the court, but because I believe it is proper and right.

If there is anything you can do to help with advertising, etc., we certainly would appreciate it. We will have to have the $4.95 in advance, but should be able to mail copies out the day we get the order. I hope you will realize that even at this price, the book cannot show a profit.

All of my material came from the official data. I felt that in the prevailing climate nothing else would receive acceptance. Almost all of it has the sources noted to facilitate checking.

If you have any questions, please ask them. And thanks very much for anything you can do.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
